

Resources for Small Businesses

URA IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD: Allentown, Carrick

Date

Friday, February 7 10 am—1 pm

Location

We'll be walking through the Warrington Avenue and Brownsville Road business districts

No appointment necessary, but if you want to make sure we stop in, let us know!

URA Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship staff will be walking through the Warrington Avenue and Brownsville Road business districts to talk to businesses about our financing programs and resources for new and existing businesses, including our new Micro-Enterprise Loan Program. If you want to make sure that we stop into your business, please let us know!

The URA Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship works to ensure effective collaboration among government and the region's innovation, technology and entrepreneur communities to drive job growth in Pittsburgh. Through a suite of loan programs, we help businesses leverage the capital necessary for their growth and success. We also employ a large network of technical assistance providers and partners to help you start, improve and grow.
