Connecting Small Businesses to Financial Services

Are you a small business owner, or someone who has a financial dream of launching a small business?

The Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh (URA) connects small business owners and entrepreneurs to one-on-one professional counseling through the Pittsburgh Financial Empowerment Center (FEC) to offer support for start-up and existing businesses.

The Financial Empowerment Center Can Help Your Small Business:

- Understand, improve, or repair your personal credit score before you apply for a loan
- Plan for personal savings to build equity or launch your small business
- Build a budget for your business

The URA Can Help Your Small Business:

- With flexible, low interest financing
- With technical assistance for loan application support and business planning
- Support and resources to start your business or to help your business grow
